

What does a typical day look like?

Arrival

The school arrives to be greeted by the costumed guides outside the historic museum. You are then lead up the pretty cobbled courtyard to the theatre area for introductions.

Introductions

The costumed guides are introduced, the day's plans explained and then split into groups for the workshops and tour of the museum. Each workshop and tour takes around 30 minutes.

Lunchtime

About 12:15pm (or thereabouts) we break for lunch. Packed lunches can be eat in the covered theatre area or if it is a nice day and you prefer, you can take by the riverside in the park at the foot of the road, a minute's walk away.

Afternoon

The group will be taken by Mr or Mrs Shakespeare for a Guided tour of Stratford. This tour takes approximately 90 minutes but can be shortened if you have to get away early.

Finish

You will be guided back to the museum (or to your coach) by the guides in time for 3pm department. If there is time, you can visit the onsite shop with lots of appropriately priced gifts.
